The honorarium reflects the quality of my presentations and my clinical work where I am completely honest and transparent, holding nothing back technically and emotionally so that delegates benefit maximally - which I find they truly love. I spend many hours preparing these presentations from the meticulous documentation of each patient I treat (with photos and videos of each case) to the time putting together the keynote presentations. This is aimed at the delegates being able to put into practice the practical advice straight away on Monday morning.

Many thanks
